A Midsummer Murder in Ockley

*written by Toni Leighton,

It's the summer of 1938 and the Ockley W.I. ladies are happily going about their daily business and looking forward to their afternoon tea at the vicarage the next day. The sheep are grazing on the Green, the pond is glistening and the tower on Leith Hill reaches into pure blue skies. On such a lovely midsummer's day, what could possibly go wrong?
